ADMINISTRATION

“The highest function of the teacher consists not so much in imparting knowledge as in stimulating the pupil in its love and pursuit.”

C. B. RIGGLES, Superintendent

*"The development of desirable traits and characteristics
— that intangible something which we style personality
— is the chief work of the school."*

O. C. TREECE, Principal

"The secret of education lies in respecting the pupil."

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER ONE

Four years ago, in early September, about ninety boys and girls were ready to begin their high school careers which had long been anticipated. As usual, about two weeks were spent before the freshmen learned which were their correct class rooms.

A few weeks after school had started, a class meeting was called by the sponsors, Mr. Scheld and Mr. Huffman. Our leaders chosen for this year were:

President	ROBERT SPRENGEL
Vice-President	GLENN SIMMONS
Secretary	EVELYN HUTCHISON
Treasurer	RUTH WILLIAMS
Reporter	RUTH CALDWELL
Cheer Leader	LORETTA HOWE

It was a very successful year, and although we were quite insignificant, we held honors in the scholastic field.

CHAPTER TWO

At the beginning of our second year we found that we were only seventy-five in number. We were as green as the freshmen this year, having to become accustomed to our new surroundings. We had the honor of being the first sophomores in the new building.

With Mr. Canfield as our sponsor, we elected the following officers:

President	ROBERT SPRENGEL
Vice-President	JACK HECKLER
Secretary	EVELYN HUTCHISON
Treasurer	CAROLINE WENZ
Reporter	WENDELL RIGGLE
Cheer Leaders	IRENE INMAN—GLENN SIMMONS

We were more active this year, and our standards of scholarship of the previous year were maintained.

CLASS HISTORY

CHAPTER THREE

We noticed that at the beginning of this year, our third, our class roll had dropped considerably, there being only fifty-nine members. Officers elected were:

President	FLORIS SWEET
Vice-President	JOHN HAYES
Secretary	PAUL MUNGER
Treasurer	WILLIAM SASS
Reporter	ALTHEA KRUSE
Student Council Representative	RUTH WILLIAMS
Cheer Leader	GLENN SIMMONS

With the help of Miss Munger and Mr. Huffman, our sponsors, our new responsibilities were handled well and we looked forward to our last year, with the hope of making it the best.

CHAPTER FOUR

Once more we resumed our high school work, but this time, in a much more serious manner. We felt that we were nearing our long dreamed-of goal, Graduation.

With Miss Forsyth and Mr. Barber guiding us we chose the following students to lead us:

President	JOHN HAYES
Vice-President	FLORIS SWEET
Secretary	CAROLINE WENZ
Treasurer	MARGARET PORTER
Reporter	EVELYN HUTCHISON
Student Council Representative	RUTH WILLIAMS
Social Chairmen	RUTH CALDWELL, WENDELL RIGGLE

Our high school career has ended, and we all look back upon the past years with fond and pleasant memories as we reach the height of our ambition.

PROPHECY

1945 was a big year for me. I had been appointed news reel photographer for Fox studios. After my appointment, I picked up my camera and merrily tripped along to the great plane awaiting me. I had always trembled at the thought of getting both feet off the ground at the same time but with Melvin McFillen as my pilot, I faced the future unafraid. Pilot McFillen had behind him ten years of brilliant and faithful service in the United States Air Corps.

I had no special duties for my first assignment. I was merely to photograph interesting sketches to be called "The Human Side of the News." We were flying along at a good rate when I noticed a man on a parachute go drifting by the plane. I wanted to know if I might be of any service so I pulled up alongside the parachute and said, "Hello," in a sociable way. To my astonishment, the person was no less than Leonard Roberts. He had been doing fancy jumps for an air circus for years.

We stopped at Omaha and I noticed a few small signs which read, "Patronize Sweet's Stock Yards." I determined to see if this fellow Sweet, could be my school mate, Flo. I found that it really was Flo. He stood before me in a bloody apron and was talking to Michael Seminew and Forest Kille, who were stock breeders.

Having a two-hour stop at Omaha, I went to the circus. The elephants led the procession and on the head of the first animal sat Stanley Gilson, dressed as an Arabian prince. Next came the white horses. It took my breath to see Iva Lou Gaskell, dressed in spangles and ruffles, riding horseback on a magnificent horse. Now came the aerialists and I waited eagerly to see that death-defying triple spin enacted by the famous aerial team, Eckel and Simmons.

On leaving the main tent I went into a side show to have a certain Madame Ronanofsky tell my fortune. I suspected the madame of being a fake and found that she was none other than Madelyn Black. I asked her if she could tell me anything about our classmates and she said she had read that Dorothy Cousino had made millions of dollars on a new type of potato peeler, that she had invented. Also, she said that Florene Charles excelled in the raising and training of Dachshund dogs.

So on to Washington where we stopped to take a few reels of political activities. A most distinguished looking butler answered my knock at the White House door. I nearly passed him by before I noticed he was Vernon Albright. He was rather hard to recognize under his camouflage of sideburns and whiskers. I was shown to the president by Harry Albright, his secretary. The president was in conference with Althea Kruse who was a representative striving to uphold the rights of the Gashouse District from New Work.

The president welcomed me and invited me to stop for tea. He promised some delicious sandwiches and little cakes. His pastry experts were Catherine Bazavik and Anna Piscor. Ruth Long and Rebecca Jeffery did nothing but concoct new recipes containing lobster which was the president's favorite food.

While flying about the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor, I saw Robert Leslie sitting in one of "Our Lady's" hands and diligently scrubbing her wrist. Every year, Bob starts at the top of her head and gives her a bath to the bottom of her feet.

I was to stay at the home of Paul Munger while in New York. Paul had taken New York by storm with his pleasing personality and was one of the socially elite. Paul gave a reception in my honor and I met Robert Thomas who had just returned from a trip around the world. Bob was brimming with information, and told me that while he was in the Samoan Islands, he saw a most peculiar spectacle. The native islanders were going through a religious ceremony, and sitting high on a throne above them was Melvin Brossia. The simple natives had set up Melvin as their king because he had the hair of the Sun God.

While in the wilder parts of Australia, Bob saw a tribe of aborigines who had adopted John Dunbar as a foster child. When Bob saw John, John had gone primitive and was wearing a couple of feathers and a string of beads.

Bob's last bit of news was that Howard Roper had made quite a name for himself as a whaler in the frozen north.

Mr. Munger liked to have gathered in his home a varied group: those in the artist's world, entertainers, scholars, the society lions and the intelligentsia. Among those present were James Bayers who was a well known man from South Carolina; Dorothy Buckenberger who had just written a wonderful pamphlet on "Social Problems," and Kathryn Cummins who was well known as an artist's model. Caroline Wenz and Hattie Fuller, who had recently returned from Tibet after unearthing antique fossils there, gave lectures on that subject. George Smithers, a popular radio crooner, sang. He introduced to the party, Ruth Williams, his secretary whose sole duty was to answer George's tremendous fan mail.

Margaret Porter and Virginia Witzler sang some very gay and very lovely selections.

The last thing on the program was a style show, Ruth Caldwell was the very pretty little lady who acted as a model.

I left Munger's mansion for suburban New York. As I needed a haircut, I went to Paul Laubenthal's barber shop. Here I met the former Doris Spilker who had become Doris McGrady. Doris had always wanted to be a policeman but she had to be content to be a policeman's wife.

An interesting case was being tried in a nearby court where Edward Lauman was working as a court stenographer. Ed was such an expert that he could write shorthand with one hand and type with the other.

I left the court for a district where many institutions and places of interest were located. I came to a Children's Home where Margaret Redman was a good, kind matron. I entered and found John Hayes doing a very fantastic dance. On inquiring into the matter I found that John had traveled all over the world learning folk dances and came back to the United States to teach the dances to the orphans in various homes. This strenuous work had made John old at an early age, and as I watched him dance he frequently tripped over his long white beard.

I was informed that "Uncle Tom's Cabin" was to be enacted for the entertainment of the children and that John Perrin was to take the role of the villain.

On leaving the "Home" I encountered William Sass who was a sort of a secretary for "Goldstein, Ginsburg and Fishstein," manufacturers of glue. With Bill was Ronald Schaller who drove an old cart about collecting the bodies of dead fish and horses which were to go into the making of the glue.

After meeting these friends, I wanted a bite to eat and entered a novel confectionery store. Beatrice and Thelma Scheider were the proprietors. They pointed out to me a delightful little millinery store across the way which was owned by Florence Eckel.

I heard that Gertrude LaFarree was residing at a convalescent home where she was resting after a strenuous sports career. Inez Stickles was her ever-faithful nurse.

Upon inquiring for my old friend, Virginia Kidney, I was told that she had built the largest aquarium in the United States. I went to the place and found poor Ginny in tears. She had spent years trying to get a cross between a shark and swordfish and had failed miserably. Trying to comfort her was Rita Shiple, a worker for the New York Humane Society.

The next day I made a shopping tour at Kresge's. Wendell Riggle was an elevator boy and Marilyn Kautz worked at the can opener counter. Marilyn advised me to see the "Perrysburg Piccadillies Revue." The chorus girls in the revue were trained to dance by Bob Welsh.

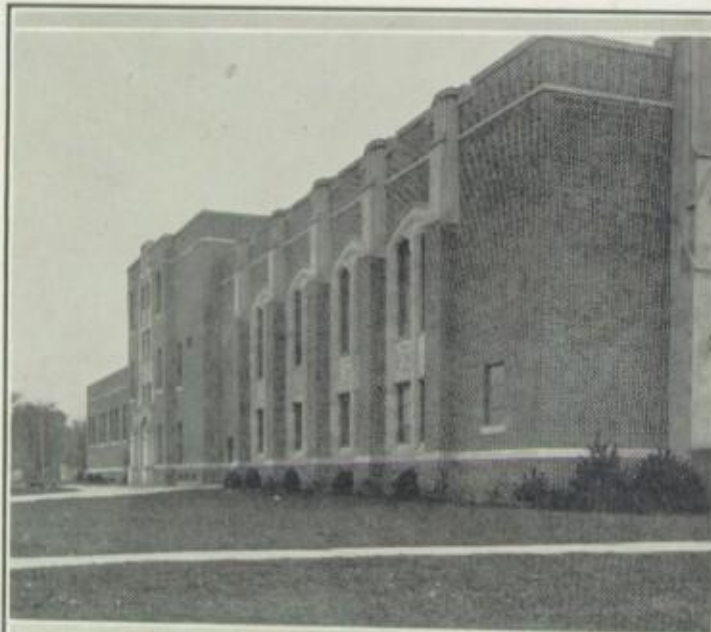

I had spent three days in New York and I was ready to leave for Hollywood. On my way to the airport I met Jack Heckler driving a truck of stones. Jack told me he was called the "Mathematical Truck Driver" because he could pile stones so evenly along the side of the road. His piles of stone never varied a fraction of an inch and when I asked why, he explained that he figured his distance by means of all sorts of angles and curves. He soon had me caught in such a web of geometrical expressions that I fled to a nearby house for escape. Here I found Irene Inman as the good housewife. Swinging from her apron strings were many cherubic babies.

The plane was overhauled by those master mechanics, Earl Nollenberger and Herald Loomis.

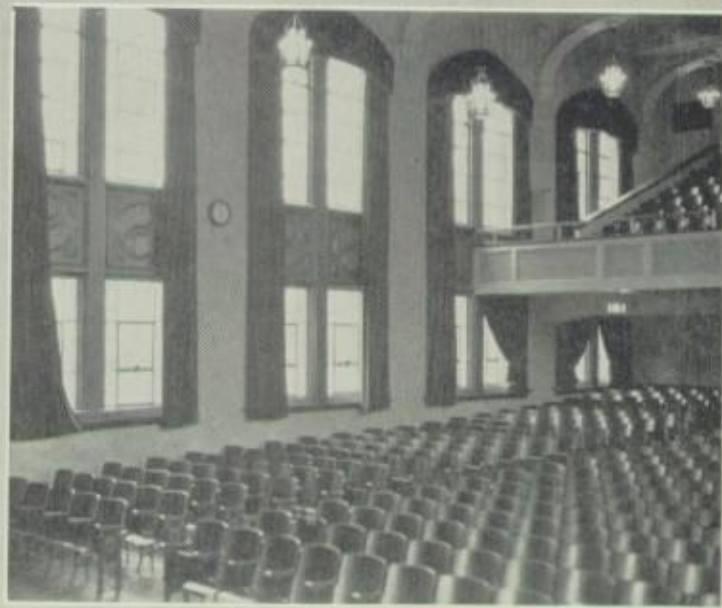

On the way home, it occurred to me that I had heard from all my classmates but one, George Madsen. It was still in this trend of thought when we arrived in Hollywood. To my utter astonishment, among those to welcome me home was George Madsen himself. It had always been a tradition among the studios that the Wampus baby stars were to be beautiful and child-like young girls, but when the movie executives saw George, they changed the tradition and made George a glorified Wampus star.

So ended a happy week. I was well satisfied with the destinies found by my classmates. Although not all of them were known the world over, each did his particular brand of work so well that his life was made worthwhile.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The history of the Student Council is quite instructive. Failures and achievements have been in the same ratio that come to Democratic governments elsewhere, and it may be added that these successes and failures have been due to the causes that are always operating in every democracy.

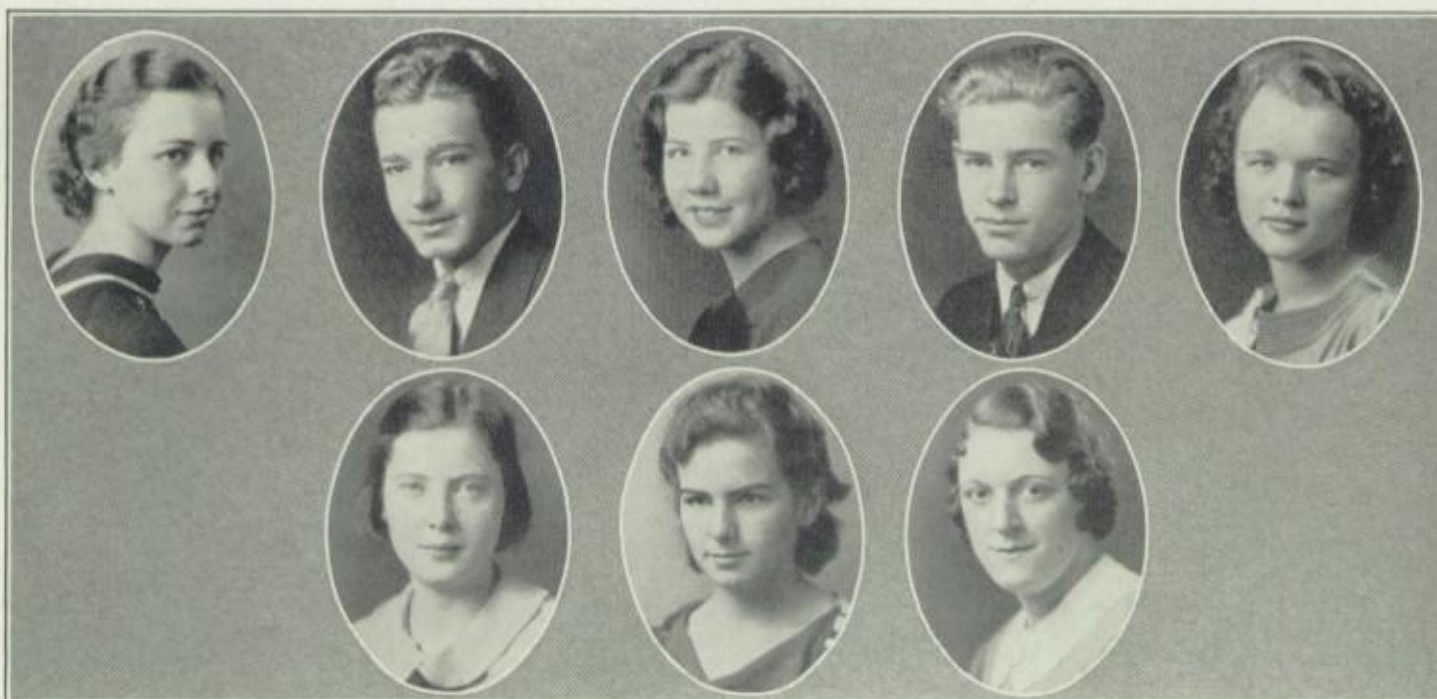

The school citizen should make more use of the school government. He will find that this pays. No question has been submitted to the council within the year that has not received serious consideration.

Work in the council has taught one wholesome lesson to its members—that each must put the welfare of all before the demands of any special group.

On the whole, the council has been very successful in its work this year. This success was due to the fine cooperation of the members and their capable leader, Mr. Huffman. The following are members of the Student Council:

President	JOHN HAYES
Vice-President	RICHARD WELLSTEAD
Secretary	RUTH WILLIAMS
Reporter	CHARLES DOWLING

Other members—Wendell Riggle, Caroline Wenz, Marilyn Kautz, Doris Spilker, Arthella Britten, John Landwehr, Marjorie Kille, Betty Burton, Junior Pyres.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

In the nine years that Perrysburg High School has been a member of the National Honor Society, which was organized in 1925, sixty-seven students have been enrolled in the membership. This distinction is one of the highest honors a student can receive from the school.

Membership confined to students of first grade schools is based upon four qualifications which are: scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Each student aspires to this distinction, thus raising the scholastic standards.

Juniors and Seniors are eligible for election to this society by the faculty. Five per cent of the class is elected in the Junior year and ten per cent in the Senior year.

The class of 1934 has an enrollment of eight members as follows: Dorothy Buckenberger, Hattie Caroline Fuller, Evelyn Hutchison, Althea Kruse, Melvin McFillen, Wendell Riggle, Doris Spilker, Caroline Wenz.

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves are the younger members of the Young Women's Christian Association. Our activities, standards, and aims center around these things: personality, fineness of character, development of leadership, ability and companionship, combined with pleasure and adventure. Junior and Senior girls of good character and scholastic standing are eligible.

Many of our goals have been achieved, including charitable work, which we think have been quite successful.

We feel that we owe our success, in a great measure, not only to the co-operation shown by the girls, but also to the untiring energy of our sponsor, Miss Forsyth, whose time and efforts have made our organization possible.

We hope to continue our ideals and standards into higher and more varied fields.

Our officers for the year have been:

President CAROLINE WENZ

Vice-President DOROTHY ECKEL

Secretary THELMA SCHIEDER

Treasurer ALTHEA KRUSE

Reporter ARTHELLA BRITTEN

Chaplain D. RUTH SAGE

HI-Y

A Hi-Y Club is the banding together of a group of upper class high school boys who are seeking Christian ideals for themselves and for the social group of which they are a part. This movement originated in England. The first high school Y. M. C. A. in the U. S., of which there is a record, was at Iona, Michigan, organized in 1870. The club is now active all over the world.

The purpose of the Hi-Y Club is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian Character. It has as its creed: Clean Living, Clean Speech, Clean Athletics, and Clean Scholarship. The local club is affiliated not only with the State Hi-Y but also with the National organization.

The membership is composed of Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors. They are selected according to their character, habits and personality. The club is largely a "service organization" i. e.—willing to help in every possible way throughout the school and community.

Mr. Treece is the advisor of the organization. The value of his experience and judgment is greatly appreciated by every member.

DRAMATIC CLUB

This is the third year of the existence of the Dramatic Club. Each succeeding year has been more active and shown better results than the year before. Under the direction of Mr. Barber the club has presented interesting programs for the public and for the high school. The club officers were:

President EVELYN HUTCHISON

Vice-President LEONARD ROBERTS

Secretary and Treasurer JACK HECKLER

Reporter D. RUTH SAGE

There were also many committee chairmen who played a large part in making the various productions successful.

CHARM SCHOOL

A new club was organized this year, under the sponsorship of Miss Forsyth, known as the "Charm School."

This organization is for the girls only, and has proved very helpful and interesting. The purpose of the club is to help and teach the girls to acquire charm in their manners, speech and personalities.

President	RUTH CUMMINS
Vice-President	WILMA BENTLEY
Secretary-Treasurer	JANET NEIDERHOUSE
Reporter	GLADYS GABB
Program Chairman	MARDAL KAUTZ

STORY TELLERS' CLUB

The club was organized on October 4, 1933 with an initial membership of forty. The election that followed resulted in some spirited contests, with the following elections:

President GLENN SIMMONS

Vice-President RUTH JANE LIPPERT

Secretary JAMES BAYER

The objectives set forth: familiarity with various types of narration, to use these with some degree of success.

Mr. Scheld acted as the faculty member in charge.

BOOK LOVERS' CLUB

This club was newly organized this year under the sponsorship of Miss Munger with the following officers:

President	CATHERINE ACKLIN
Vice-President	JANE DICKSON
Secretary	KATHRYN SHUMAKER
Treasurer	HILDA MARY WENZ
Reporter	RUTH GOECKERMAN

During the meetings literature was discussed and book reviews were given.

A unique idea was carried out when a Book Booth was arranged. Some of the better literature was displayed and this booth proved to be quite an attraction.

We feel that we have accomplished a great deal in our first year and hope to make it even better in the future.

LEADERSHIP CLUB

The Group Leadership Club is a new club that was founded this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Huffman. The aim of the club is to better acquaint the students with the performance of government, and to teach them how to handle the business of a group. Very few people know how this is done. In the meetings the various forms of parliamentary procedure were brought out more forcibly by having the chairmanship shifted to each member of the club at some time during the year.

SCIENCE CLUB

The 1933-34 Science Club was organized in September. The purpose of the club is to create a broader knowledge of science. At regular meetings reports on electricity, airplanes, dirigibles, submarines, and many other things of scientific interest were given. Various demonstrations on electro-magnetism and electricity were performed by Mr. Canfield, the club's sponsor.

President MATTHEW DOWLING

Vice-President FREDERICK ALTHOFF

Secretary-Treasurer VIRGINIA LIMMER

Reporter HAROLD LEHMAN

BOYS' ATHLETIC CLUB

This club was organized this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Bachman. At the first meeting forty-four boys joined and the following officers were elected:

President	ALBERT LIEBHERR
Vice-President	BERNARD FOX
Secretary-Treasurer	ROBERT ANDERSON
Reporter	BRATCHE WEBSTER

The purpose of the club is to strive for better health and sportsmanship. Members of the club find interesting reports concerning health and sports. These are read at club meetings. Questions are asked to bring out the subject more clearly.

HOME ECONOMICS

Under the sponsorship of Miss Wahl, this club has progressed and now has a membership of thirty-five enthusiastic girls. Near Christmas time, a play "Getting Ahead of Grandpa" was presented in the old school building.

A luncheon was held at noon, Feb. 21, for the members of the club and their friends. The most outstanding work, however, was the sewing and other household work that was done by the club.

Officers for the year were:

President	WILMA EMCH
Vice-President	LUCILLE SCHWIND
Secretary-Treasurer	MURIEL EMMITT
Reporter	MARGARET KURFIS

LATIN CLUB

The First and Second year Latin Clubs, sponsored by Miss Forsyth, were reorganized this year. The original name "Veni, Vidi, Vici," was again selected.

The purpose of these clubs is to better acquaint the Latin students with the customs, ideals, characteristics and literature of the Roman people.

The programs consisted of reports on Ancient Rome, Modern Rome, Roman foods and people, Roman art, literature and mythology. Many interesting and entertaining plays and skits were presented by members of the clubs.

Pins, which are distinctive of the Latin Club, were selected this year. The colors of the pins are Roman purple and gold.

The clubs have had a very successful year under the guidance of the following officers:

First Year Club

President JANET NEIDERHOUSE
 Vice-President BETTY BURTON
 Sec.-Treas. BETTY KEUHN
 Reporter MARTIN ALTHOFF
 Program Chairman FELIA FORD

Second Year Club

President CATHERINE ACKLIN
 Vice-President MATTHEW DOWLING
 Sec.-Treas. BETTY DICKSON
 Reporter JOHN HUFFMAN
 Program Chairman FREDERICK JACOBS

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The French students reorganized the French Club this year, displaying a great deal of interest and enthusiasm.

The Junior French Class and the Senior French Class organized separate clubs. The purpose of these clubs is to afford more opportunity to learn customs, traditions, history and literature of the people whose language we are studying. These objectives have been better accomplished by the entire use of French in all phases of our programs.

Senior Officers Are:

President HATTIE FULLER
Vice-President D. RUTH SAGE
Secretary DORIS SPILKER
Reporter DOROTHY ECKEL
Program Chairmen EVELYN HUTCHISON
CAROLINE WENZ

Junior Officers Are:

President CATHERINE ACKLIN
Vice-President CHARLES DOWLING
Secretary MARY CRANKER
Reporter BETTY WEICHEL
Program Chairman URSULA KOTOWSKI

With the help and guidance of Miss Forsyth, our French teacher, we feel that we have attained our purpose.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club organized last fall with the unusually large enrollment of 125. The members elected the following officers:

President	EVELYN HUTCHISON
Vice-President	RUTH WILLIAMS
Secretary and Treasurer	URSULA KOTOWSKI
Reporter	DOROTHY ECKEL
Librarian	GLADYS BAKER
Property Managers	ELIZABETH BAKER
	MARGARET PORTER
Accompanist	VIRGINIA WITZLER

The girls took second place at the Northwestern Ohio Eisteddfod held at Fostoria, singing "The Butterfly," by Jenkins.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

In the fall of 1933, thirty-four boys reported for the reorganization of the Glee Club. The following officers were elected:

President	RICHARD WELLSTEAD
Vice-President	MELVIN BROSSIA
Secretary and Treasurer	JACK THORNTON
Librarian	LEONARD ROBERTS
Reporter	WILLIAM SASS
Property Managers	JOSEPH LEHMAN DONALD HALBERT
Accompanist	D. RUTH SAGE

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Gerber, the chorus learned many new songs. Twenty-five of the members were selected for the boys' chorus which sang "The Gypsy Trail" by Galloway, winning third place at Fostoria in the District High School Eisteddfod.

MIXED CHORUS

Through the persistent efforts of Mr. Gerber we feel the Mixed Chorus has had a very successful year.

The chorus worked on several numbers during the year and made two public appearances.

The chorus entered the Northwestern Eisteddfod at Fostoria. The contest numbers were "Dear Land of Home" by Sebilius and "Adoramus Te" by Palestrina.

The officers were:

President	DORIS SPILKER
Vice-President	GLENN SIMMONS
Secretary and Treasurer	ARTHELLA BRITTEN
Librarian	MATTHEW DOWLING
Reporter	DOROTHY ECKEL
Property Managers	GLADYS BAKER

Accompanist	DOROTHY ECKEL

State Vocal and Ensemble Contest held at Oberlin, May 12, 1934. The following contestants represented Perrysburg High School.

Bass Solo	George Smithers	Alto Solo	Virginia Witzler
Baritone Solo	John Hayes	Soprano	Marilyn Kautz
Tenor Solo			Laurel Phillips

NORTHWESTERN EISTEDDFOD

On March 23, 1934, the representatives of Defiance, Kenton, Fostoria, and Perrysburg met at Fostoria to compete in the Northwestern Eisteddfod.

This year Perrysburg had unusually keen competition since the other schools represented were larger, but our contestants proved to be a very capable group and won second place, thanks to Mr. Gerber for his excellent directing.

By means of the elimination contest, the students for the various events were chosen. They were the following:

Mixed Quartet	Margaret Redman, Virginia Witzler, Laurel Phillips, George Smithers
Baritone Solo	George Smithers
Girls' Trio	Virginia Witzler, Althea Kruse, Margaret Redman
Alto Solo	Virginia Witzler
Male Quartet	John Hayes, Paul Harbauer, Laurel Phillips, George Smithers
Soprano Solo	Marilyn Kautz
Piano Solo	Ursula Kotowski
Tenor Solo	Leonard Roberts

The Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club and Boys' Glee Club were also represented.

BAND

Every band member in previous years hoped to have uniforms which give color and interest to a band. Due to the kindness of the American Legion and its interest in the school, uniforms were furnished for the band.

The Perry'sburg High School Band of 1933-1934 was organized with the election of the following officers:

President	PAUL MUNGER
Secretary-Treasurer	FRANCIS KALTENMARK

SCHOLARSHIP CONTESTANTS

In April each year the teachers through a series of elimination tests select the two best students in each subject. These thirty students make up the State Scholarship Examination, which is held the first Saturday in May.

This contest is held at five different centers over the state, the four state colleges and Ohio State University.

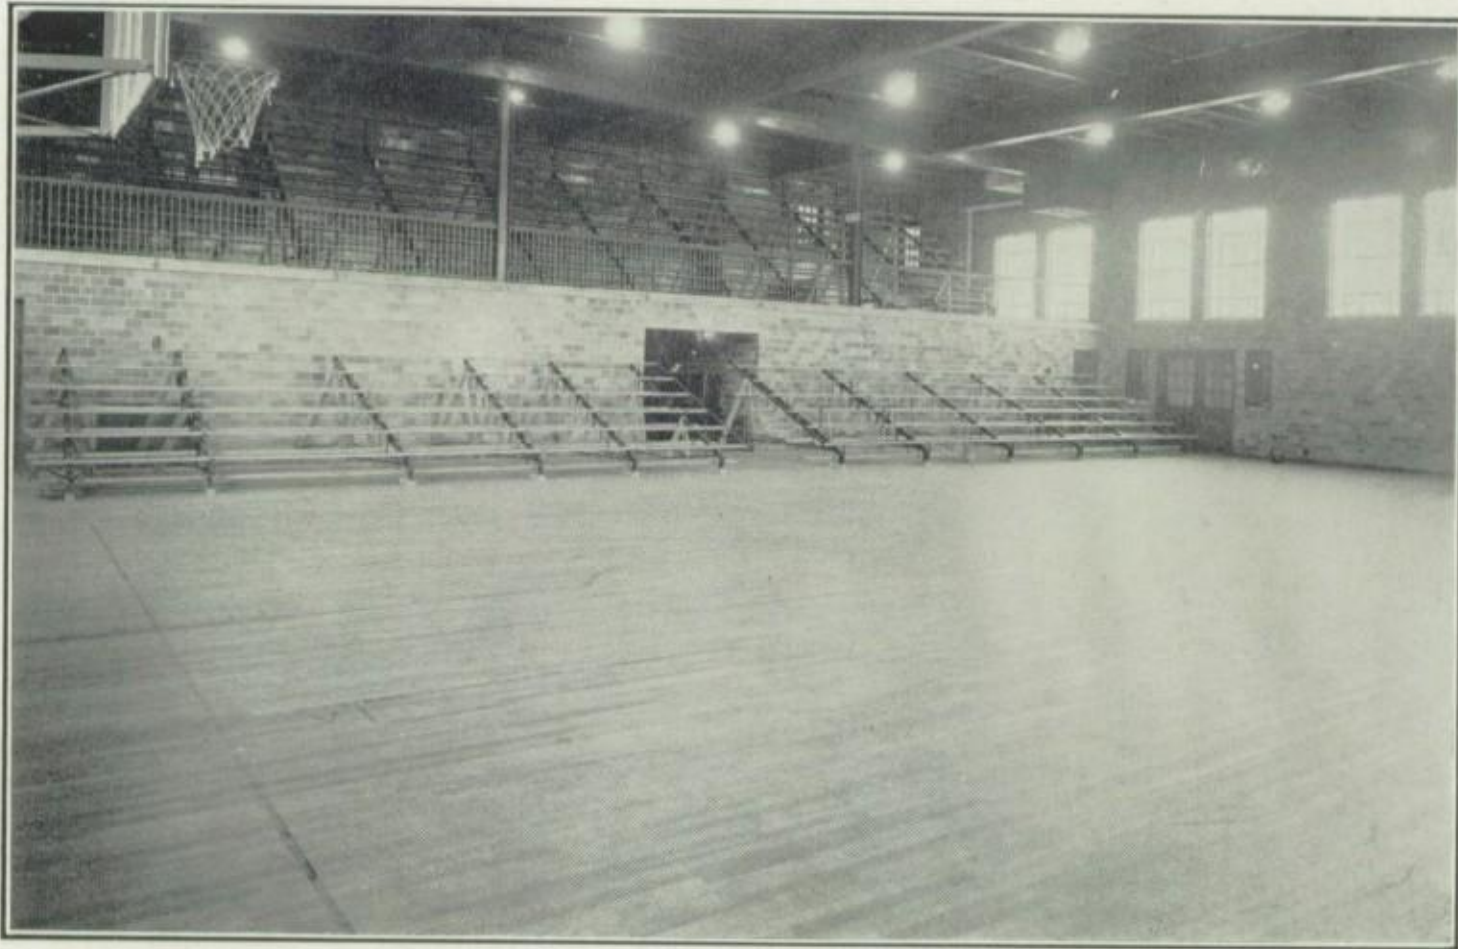

The Perrysburg team competes in the Exempted Village classification in the Bowling Green division which is made up of twenty-two counties of Northwestern Ohio.

The reports from each division are sent to Columbus and the winners are decided by comparative scores.

The Perrysburg team has always ranked high in these contests. Three years ago we placed fifth in our division, two years ago second and last year we took first place.

As this book goes to press the results of this year's contest are not yet known. The team members were:

COACHES

COACH BACHMAN—Four years at P. H. S. have given Coach Bachman a record that is hard to beat. Good sportsmanship, fair play and work with a will, have distinguished these years. Games have been lost but the teams have also won their share of victories.

Bachman does not believe in the motto, "Win at any cost," but rather "Win if you can, honestly and fairly, but lose rather than win by other means."

Always the welfare of his boys is uppermost in his mind.

By his honesty and fairness, as well as his coaching ability he has won the respect of his boys and of the entire student body.

"DOC" CANFIELD—Assistant coach and trainer. "Doc" was right on the job again this year to patch broken noses and other injuries, received by the boys while playing. His ready smile and good humor did much to keep the fellows playing their very best game throughout the year.

MR. TREECE, Faculty Manager—As Athletic Manager, Mr. Treece seldom is shown the appreciation we really feel for his tireless work. Incidentally the athletic fellows wish to express their appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Treece for being the true friend and advisor to them. His sense of fair play and his excellent ability and tact, make him dear to every team with which he has any associations.

FOOTBALL PERSONALS

HERALD LOOMIS—"Herald"—Guard. Herald was one of our strongest men at guard this year, and we hate to see him go. Good-luck, Herald.

MELVIN BROSSIA—"Red"—Lineman. Red was another of the few lettermen back with us and his excellent playing won our respect and admiration.

RICHARD WELLSTEAD—"Dick"—Halfback. Dick was shifted into the backfield this year where he proved to be a clever broken-field runner. Dick has another year to play and we hope to see him continue his excellent playing.

STEVE PROTSIK—"Steve"—Halfback. Steve was one of our letter men back with us this year and his scrappy playing showed us his abilities. We are sorry that he found it necessary to withdraw from school.

WILLIAM SCHWIND—"Bill"—End. Bill's excellent playing at end prevented the opponent from gaining much ground around that end. He has good chances of becoming one of the "mighty" if he keeps up the good work. Let's do it, Bill.

ALBERT LIEBHERR—"Al"—Center. Al's work in the line was outstanding and helped the team over some rough bumps this season. He has another year to play and we are expecting a great deal from him next year.

WILLIAM HONNER—"Bill"—Halfback. This was Bill's first year with the team. He didn't play every game, but what we saw of his playing, makes us want to see what he can do in his two remaining years.

NORBERT HIMBURG—"Hamburg"—Tackle. Himburg was one of the few freshmen to make the team, but his playing showed us his possibilities of becoming a strong member of the team in his remaining three years.

GLEN REITHER—"Glen"—Halfback. This was Glen's first year on the team, but he showed ability. With another year's work, we feel he will develop into quite a clever player.

STANLEY GILSON—"Stan"—Fullback. Stanley really played ball this year, on the offensive as well as the defensive. We hate to lose you Stan.

GEORGE SMITHERS—"George"—End. This was George's first year at football, and being a senior we regret to say, his last. He did fine punting and showed a good fighting spirit.

BRATCHE WEBSTER—"Bratche"—Guard. Bratche has worked hard this year and improved his game greatly. With a year's work next season we expect great things of Bratche.

CHARLES RICHARDS—"Chuck"—Tackle. Charles shows great ability for putting up a very scrappy fight as a lineman. He still has two years, so come on, let's work.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

In a school of this size a really strong team cannot be developed every year. It takes time to build a winning team and when these men are gone, another building period is usually necessary before another strong team can be developed.

This year was a building year. With a light and inexperienced squad, Coach Bachman turned his attention to building for next year and the year following. The results of his work will be seen when the team takes the field next September.

Though most of the games were lost this year, the success of a season is not measured entirely by games won. A clean, hard fight is the thing of chief importance in any game.

BASKET-BALL REVIEW

The 1933-34 basketball schedule was perhaps the toughest ever played by a P. H. S. team. In addition to the league games which are always hard fought, the team played Fostoria, St. John's and Bowling Green, three unusually strong class A teams. Handicapped greatly by lack of size the team overcame this handicap by speed and cleverness sufficiently to win more than half of their games and to place second in the Maumee Valley League. Much of the credit for this fine showing belongs to Coach Bachman.

Two members of the team, Sweet, guard, and Riggle, forward, graduate this year. Both were outstanding players and their positions will be hard to fill. With Burkhart, Liebherr, Wellstead and Haas back again and several promising substitutes coming on, prospects look fairly bright for another winning team next year.

BASKET-BALL REVIEW

HASKINS: This, our first game of the season, started us off with a comparatively easy victory for us, 23-15.

SYLVANIA: Our first league game showed great improvement in the playing of the whole team. Another victory for us, 29-18.

ST. JOHN'S: St. John's came with a reputation for being the best in Toledo, and we just couldn't get started. First loss, 14-26.

POINT PLACE: Our second league game proved favorable to us. The boys played a strong defensive game with a score of 24-15.

WHITMER: This game found our boys a bit out-of-condition, and we lost, 40-22.

MAUMEE: This was the fourth league game of our fellows and it was a bitterly contested struggle, ending with our victory, 16-13.

ROSSFORD: At Rossford we met two serious handicaps. The height of the Rossford team and the small floor. They proved too much for us and we lost this league game, 8-30.

FOSTORIA: After leading in the first quarter, we weakened against their superior height and size and lost a hard game, 23-27.

SYLVANIA: Back on our own floor and in good condition we won this league game, 28-18.

POINT PLACE: Perrysburg's playing was far below par, but Point Place was even lower. Our victory, 15-13.

MAUMEE: Maumee's desire for revenge was realized when they defeated us this game by a score of 9-24.

ROSSFORD: Failure to hit the basket with precision lost the game to Rossford, 11-20.

BOWLING GREEN: A strong defensive on our opponents side and our own failure to make good both foul and floor shots lost the game for us, 11-24.

WHITMER: The last game of the season found us in third place in the Maumee Valley League. The hard fought game with Whitmer placed us in a tie for second with a score of 23-26.

WENDELL RIGGLE—Forward

"Wendy" played a good snappy game of basketball this year. He was a good shot and a high point man in many games. We hate to say "so-long," but we must, so, here's luck.

FLORIS SWEET—Guard

"Flo" was another of our star players this year. We are safe in saying that Flo is one of the best players Perrysburg has ever produced. Keep on Flo.

RICHARD WELLSTEAD—Forward

"Dick" was with us again and playing an excellent game of ball. You have a year yet, Dick, so come on. Let's go.

GORDON BURKHART—Center

"Burky" played a fighting game all the way this year. You too, have another year, so let's work.

ALBERT LIEBHERR—Guard

"Al" played good steady basketball, throughout the season. His remarkable team work with Sweet and his ability to score almost without fail has won our respect and admiration. We'll see you next year, Al.

AMBROSE HAAS—Forward

"Ham" was the only Sophomore to make the team this year. Judging by this year's work we expect very excellent basketball in your remaining years. Come on, Ham, let's show them what you can do.
